ACEA SUPPORTS VAN GOGH EXHIBITION AT PALAZZO BONAPARTE

Rome, October 7th, 2022 - ACEA Group, which has collaborated with the most prestigious cultural institutions in the capital where it has been operating for more than 110 years, supports the Van Gogh exhibition organized at Palazzo Bonaparte, which will take place from 8 October to 26 March on the occasion of the 170th anniversary from the birth of the great Dutch artist, on March 30, 1853.

This is the most awaited exhibition of the year, designed through a path of 50 works, all from the prestigious Kröller Müller Museum in Otterlo, which recreate the human and artistic life of Van Gogh to celebrate his artistic genius and his universal greatness.

"I'm aware of the role that culture can play as a tool for the development of the city," declared the COO of the Acea Group Giovanni Papaleo. "The Company has always aimed at enhancing the cultural and artistic heritage of the Capital, promoting events linked to the territory but at the same time of great international importance. It is therefore an honour for us to support the "Van Gogh" exhibition and we are pleased to be part of this important event and to endorse all those artistic initiatives that generate economic and cultural wealth."
